

I am outraged that a broadcasting company will be using the public airwaves to blatantly influence the elections in this country. What kind of example does this set for emerging democracies? For our children?

Shame on them.